Dayspring Church School of Christian Living          March 28 - May 23, 2019

Sacred Circles: Nourishing the Space Between Us

This class is for people of all faiths and for those who might call themselves spiritual but not religious. Our particular spiritual grounding is the Christian faith. The School of Christian Living offers an opportunity to explore the Christian faith and to explore the life in community given to us at Dayspring. "Every local church needs to be a seminary to train people for radical faith." (Gordon Cosby, founder of the church of the Saviour). The radical nature of Christian community demands our continuing conversion to total commitment to following the way of Jesus.

We provide a context to share in community, engage in prayer and meditation, and grapple with the course content, expecting that God's Spirit will be at work in us. Because we believe commitment to be a key to the lively experience of the School, participants are asked to attend all sessions except for reasons of illness; to engage in prayer as agreed in the group, and to work with homework assignments. The suppers are an important part of the course, an opportunity for sharing Christ's presence among us in the bread and in the fellowship of other pilgrims. If you anticipate having to miss more than two class sessions for this spring term, please wait until another semester to attend.

On March 28th we will begin at 7:15 pm and supper is not included.  There is no class on April 18th.

Beginning APRIL 4th, supper will be prepared by participants on a rotating basis. We will gather to eat at 6:30 pm each Thursday. The charge will be $4 per person per meal. The cooks for the evening will be reimbursed for food costs. Supper will be followed by a meditation time and class, which will finish by 9:00 pm.

Please register by Thursday, March 14th. Leave form in kitchen "office" mailbox, mail it to 11301 Neelsville Church Road, Germantown, MD 20876 or call the office 301 515-4399 on Wed.,Thurs., or Fri.
